

09.00-21.00, November 18, 2022
Craafordsalen, Sundsvägen 14, Alnarp, Sweden

Welcome!

Torfi Jóhannesson

Head of department Gender Equality, International Cooperation, Natural Resources and Culture (LINK) at the Nordic Council of Ministers.

Liisa Saarenmaa

Former member of the SNS board, and in the Finnish Ministry for many years.

Jenny Claesson

Norm engineer and partner in Add Gender. Explains complex theories in a simple and humorous way.

Markku Rummukainen

Professor in climatology at Lund University and Sweden's representative in the IPCC.

Viveka Beckeman

Director General at Swedish Forest Industries, leads the organization's work based on the vision of driving growth in the world's bioeconomy.

Rane Willerslev

Professor in social anthropology and Director of the National Museum in Denmark.

Hjördís Jónsdóttir

Student at Icelandic Agricultural University and youth member of the SNS board.

Jonas Rönnberg

Head of SNS since 2014. Forest researcher at SLU and Director of SLU Forest Damage Centre.

Edda Sigurdís Oddsdóttir

Chair of SNS since 2022. Research Director at Icelandic Forest Research.

Ivar Ekanger

Chair of EK-FJLS Agriculture and Forestry, NMR. Member of SNS board and former chair.

Agenda

09.00-09.30

Arrival

- Welcome
- NMR in the Nordic forests, Torfi Jóhannesson
- SNS history, Liisa Saarenmaa

10.30-11.00

Pause

- Gender equality and forest, Jenny Claesson
- In progress

12.00-13.00

Lunch

- The various uses of the forest, dialogue with Markku Rummukainen and Viveka Beckeman
- "Mit magiske træ", Rane Willerslev

15.30-15.45

Pause

- SNS in the future, Hjördís Jónsdóttir, Jonas Rönnerberg, Edda Sigurdís Oddsdóttir and Ivar Ekanger
- Anniversary call

16.30-18.00

Candlelight walk in the park

18.00-21.00

Dinner with a Nordic touch at Alnarp9

21.00-

Pub visit for minded

22.00

Bus to Malmö

